Citizen Science Zurich

For an open, diverse and inclusive science

Research with and for the public

Citizen Science Zurich is an initiative of the University of Zurich and the Mercator Foundation Switzerland. We want to strengthen Citizen Science – i.e. the participation of citizens in scientific research – and facilitate collaboration between science and society.

We have many years of experience in the field of Citizen Science and can support you in your projects with our wide range of services:

Trainings
Our wide range of courses and workshops gives you the opportunity to improve your skills in Citizen Science and public engagement.

Project Support
Through individual consulting, Seed Grants and our know-how, we help you to develop and successfully implement Citizen Science projects.

Digital Tools
We provide a set of tools that supports you in the implementation of projects based on digital data and simplifies the collection and analysis of data.

Community & Network
We offer you an environment that promotes and facilitates collaboration between citizens and researchers. As a member, you also benefit from attractive benefits.

Do you have any questions? Contact us, we look forward to hearing from you!
